Academic Open Mic Night @ RUB

44.000... That's a lot of students we cross on Campus daily. But do we know anything about their subjects, interests and research? Why even care? Our head is already stuffed with our own papers, due-dates and jobs, right? Right?

WRONG!

(R)austausch wants us to gain new perspectives by leaving one-foot at a time our comfort-zone one-foot at a time and present our subject's matters to those, who might not know anything about it. We are looking for your open-minded contributions to our theme: "Über den Rand" / "Outside the lines". You have written a paper about the Jazz-theme in Langston Hughes' poems? You did a play on gender norms in our society? You conducted a laboratory experiment that transforms metal into high-tech? Or you're a poet beyond formal structures?

Introduce us to your work and win prizes! Send in your material by January 12th 2017. Medium, faculty or subject are irrelevant - everyone is welcome. Leave your laboratory, your office, your desk aside and participate!

WRITE, READ, PERFORM! GET OUT THERE!

When? 01/26/17 Where? Chorprobenraum - Muisches Zentrum Who? Everyone!
